

Coast afternoon. Thanks to Trisha King, we can report that Z's Fish House (formerly Zampieri's) officially opened Tuesday night.

Yes, Mike and Brenda Zampieri still are the owners, but this is a retooling of a casual dining and entertainment venue that contains more than 200 seats on the Destin Harbor.

More on this in Sunday's business section.

Back in the Harbor

Shane Moody and his team at the Destin Area Chamber of Commerce have announced that in October the 31st annual Destin Seafood Festival will return to its waterfront location at HarborWalk Village, with headliners Joan Jett and Survivor. This is the first weekend of October.

In 2008, more than 36,000 people attended the three-day event. The festival is seeking sponsors, as well as arts and crafts and food vendors. For more information, visit www.DestinSeafoodFestival.org.

Spring BBQ

Magnolia Manor, which specializes in senior day-care, will host a Spring BBQ at 5:30 p.m. Friday. The address is 141 Barks Drive in Fort Walton Beach. Families are asked to bring canned goods to be donated to Sharing and Caring. For more information, please call 362-6556.

Job Fair

Those of you looking for work will want to know there is a Job Fair scheduled from 5 to 8 p.m. May 19 at the Air Force Armament Museum just north of Shalimar on State Road 85. For more information, call Paul Maryeski at 830-3321.
